DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the claims depend from the elected independent claim 8 and therefore has all the elements of the elected invention. This is not found persuasive because there is no allowable subject matter and the claims are directed to a mutually exclusive invention that is patentably distinct for the reasons of record.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Clark US 4,829,124.

5. The rejection set forth under 35 USC 102/103 in the paper mailed 10/19/06 is deemed proper and is herein repeated. The amended claims and remarks filed in support thereof have been fully considered and do not place the claims in condition for allowance.

Applicants have amended the claims to "consisting essentially of" and argue that the art is directed to a thermoplastic elastomer which uses an epoxy crosslinking agent. This is not persuasive. The "consisting essentially of" language excludes ingredients which materially change the basic and novel characteristics of the claimed invention. It is unclear as to which ingredients are to be excluded. The claimed acrylonitrile elastomer is crosslinked with the thermoplastic polyolefin. This would appear to read on the thermoplastic elastomer of the prior art. While applicants allege that these are different, there is no support for the allegations. Further, applicants fail to identify the ingredient to be excluded and how the ingredient would materially change the basic and novel characteristics of the claimed invention.Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
